

NAYIRI BOGHOSSIAN

Partner

Al Owais Advocates and Legal Consultants

✉ nayiri@alowaislegal.com

☎ +971 4 2219000 | +971 4 2222600

📱 +971 55 4149727

Summary

Nayiri is qualified in both civil and common law jurisdictions and is a multi-lingual private practitioner and arbitrator based in Dubai since 2002. Prior to her current role, Nayiri was a partner in one of the largest international law firms where she also acted as the head of the disputes practice of the firm in the Middle East. Prior to that, Nayiri was a partner in a Dubai based law firm and during the early years of her career, Nayiri spent few years as an in-house counsel in a leading consumer goods multinational.

Nayiri has a vast and in-depth knowledge of the civil and commercial laws of the United Arab Emirates where she has been practicing over the years. She has also worked on cross-jurisdictional disputes in the Arab world, representing parties and advising them in proceedings governed by the laws of various Arab countries. Having qualified in a number of jurisdictions, Nayiri has a thorough understanding of the legal systems of Syria, New York State and France.

Nayiri also acts as arbitrator in various institutions such as CRCICA, DIAC, DIFC-LCIA and ICC. She has been appointed over the years in real estate, construction and general commercial disputes.

Admissions

Nayiri is a member of the New York State Bar and is qualified in Syria and France.

Nayiri is a domain name panelist and a tutor of an arbitration course at WIPO.

Education

Nayiri holds a bachelor of laws from Damascus University (1997), an LLM from McGill Law (2000), and an LLM from Georgetown University Law Centre (2011).

Languages

Nayiri is a native speaker of Arabic and Armenian. She is fluent in English and French and has studied German for many years.