

MS. KIRAN NASIR GORE, Esq.

Law Offices of Kiran N Gore PLLC
1050 30th St NW
Washington, DC 20007 USA

+1 (917) 589-8714
kng@gorelaw.com

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/kiran-n-gore

Nationality: United States
Languages: English, Urdu, and Hindi (native)
Arabic and French (business)

Ms. Kiran Nasir Gore, Esq. is an international arbitrator, dispute resolution consultant & counsel with fifteen years of experience advising governments, corporations, institutions, and individuals on public and private international law, international development, foreign investment strategies, international dispute resolution, and legal investigation and compliance efforts.

Kiran is listed on the arbitrator rosters of several global institutions and has expertise in a variety of industries, including oil & gas, energy, telecommunications, technology services, luxury goods and retail/design, financial services and cryptocurrencies & digital assets.

She developed her legal acumen and advocacy skills at large and small law firms in New York and Washington, DC. Previously she was an Associate in the Litigation & Arbitration team of DLA Piper LLP in New York, one of the world's leading large law firms (2010-2014); Senior Associate at Three Crowns LLP in Washington, DC, an elite global law firm focused on international dispute resolution (2014-2017); and Counsel at the Law Offices of Charles H. Camp, P.C. in Washington, DC (2019-2022). In 2022, Kiran launched her solo law practice with the purpose of offering cost-effective and efficient services to her clients and arbitral users.

Kiran is co-editor and co-author of two new books: The Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties in Investor-State Disputes: History, Evolution, and Future (Kluwer, 2022) and International Investment Law and Investor-State Disputes in Central Asia: Emerging Issues (Kluwer, 2023). She is a sought-after author and speaker on international arbitration and related topics. Currently she serves as a member of the ICC Task Force on ADR and Arbitration.

As an educator, Kiran focuses on international law, international dispute resolution, constitutional law, civil procedure, and written and oral advocacy. She is a Professorial Lecturer in Law in the International and Comparative Law Program at The George Washington University Law School (since 2018). In 2022, she was invited to develop and teach a new course for GW Law called International Business Transactions Seminar: the Global Economy & International Disputes. The course launched with enrollment exceeding capacity and received glowing reviews.

Kiran obtained her Juris Doctor at Brooklyn Law School in New York (2009) and her Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude at New York University's Gallatin School of Individualized Study (2006). She is admitted to practice in New York and the District of Columbia and also before the U.S. Supreme Court, the D.C. Circuit Court, the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the District for the District of Columbia, and the Western District of Tennessee.

Industries of Focus:

- Oil & gas, energy
- Financial services, cryptocurrencies & digital assets
- Large scale infrastructure and engineering
- Manufacturing & supply chain
- Insurance
- Retail, design, & fashion
- Luxury goods, jewelry, & gemstones

Regions of Focus:

- United States and Canada
- Central Asia
- South Asia
- Middle East
- Latin America