

KIM CONSULTING
SÀRL

OLGA KIM

Attorney at Law

KIM Consulting Sarl
Geneva Nations 6th Floor
Rue du Pre-de-la-Bichette 1
1202 Geneva
Switzerland
olga@kimsarl.ch
+41 22 503 39 20
www.kimsarl.ch

Olga Kim is a lawyer from Central Asia based in Switzerland. She specialises in international arbitration and cross-border litigation. Her experience includes international commercial and investment arbitration, transactional law, litigation and international civil service law.

Olga has been practicing law on national, regional and international levels since 2008. She advised sovereign states, international corporations and small businesses across the industries in Central Asia, as well as represented clients in international arbitration proceedings.

Olga is admitted to the Tashkent Bar.

She is a Member of the Swiss Arbitration Association, the Russian and CIS Arbitration Network (RCAN) and Young ICCA.

Representative Experience

- Provided pre-arbitration advice to a Swiss construction company.
- Acted as secretary to an ICC Arbitral Tribunal.
- Acted as a substitute secretary to an ICSID Arbitral Tribunal.
- Successfully represented a German company in VIAC arbitration proceedings in Vienna.
- Acted as counsel for an Austrian distribution company in ICC arbitration proceedings in Vienna.
- Acted as counsel for a leading Central Asian bank in arbitration proceedings in Switzerland.
- Represented a trading company in an SCC arbitration.
- Acted for a trading company in a number of maritime and contractual disputes, including LMAA, ad hoc and LCIA arbitrations.
- Advised an international law firm in the framework of international construction arbitration in Central Asia.
- Acted as a local counsel in Central Asia for investors in a number of ICSID arbitrations.

Education

LL.M. MIDS University of Geneva and Graduate Institute, 2011
MSc. CLEF International University College of Turin, 2011
LL.B. University of World Economy and Diplomacy of Tashkent, 2006

Languages

English
Russian
Italian
French
Uzbek